

ABOUT GLAP

Gay & Lesbian Affirmative Psychotherapy (GLAP) is a division of the Institute for Contemporary Psychotherapy (ICP), a New York State not-for-profit corporation. GLAP was founded in 1997, to meet the mental health needs of the LGBTQ population. GLAP provides affirmative, psychoanalytical oriented psychotherapy to the LGBTQ community, while recognizing the vast diversity of gender and sexuality within all individuals.

GLAP TRAINING PROGRAM

GLAP's LGBTQ Clinical Certification Program is the first psychoanalytic program of its kind. It is an exciting opportunity for all clinicians who seek specialized training in the treatment of the LGBTQ population of the 21st century. In an effort to continue keeping mental health professionals on the cutting edge of treatment and trends within the LGBTQ community, GLAP is pleased to announce an expanded series of seminars and learning modules leading to certification.

Clinical Dialogues Spanning the Transgender Spectrum

IN TRANSLATION This two-day conference will provide mental health professionals with the opportunity to expand their knowledge and understanding in treating transgender* clients in a clinical setting. To this end, GLAP has brought together a panel of experts and therapists in the field to provide participants with up-to-date information and discussion.

*Includes, but is not limited to: male-to-female transgender, female-to-male transgender, intersexed, gender queer, and gender non-conforming individuals

Please see GLAP's website: www.glapnyc.org for workshop summaries and presenter biographies
